

Chisago County Citizen Review Panel

CRP Principles	Consistently happening, visibly evident.	Sometimes happening, but varying consistency.	Not happening, an opportunity to improve.
1. CRP has defined goals and objectives (desired outcomes)		✓
2. CRP membership is representative of the community it operates in-diverse, inclusive, expertise and experience.		✓
3. CRP has established structures and processes, including communications with and between CRP members and with child welfare system.	✓
4. CRP has access to information (child welfare, policies, practices, regulations) data, and resources (including training and education relevant to their work).			✓
5. CRP determines their priorities, activities, and desired outcomes that support CAPTA CRP objectives.			✓
6. CRP has an established mechanism for sharing results of their work with state and local child welfare agencies, constituents, communities, and other stakeholder groups (annual report, recommendations, and state response).			✓
7. CRP is a valued partner with state and local child welfare systems and other stakeholder groups.		✓

CRP has structures and processes for regular communication/interaction with local child welfare system.

CRP has the needed facilitation to support regular meetings and work progress, and to clarify and advance an overall work plan that will be effective in examining state child protection efforts.

CRP meetings regularly, as needed, more often than quarterly.

✓

11.

CRP members are committed, engaged, and responsive.

✓

- 4. not getting longitudinal data when requested / not given education on how to properly request it
- not enough training on CAPTA in order to properly critique systems and where we can affect change
- 6. we, members of the CRP should be writing the annual report
- 9. our "consistent" answer is due to recent improvement
- 11. also recent change b/c of full membership
